

WRGW Able To Officially Broadcast

Radio Station Gains Administration's OK

by Dave Armstrong

• RADIO STATION WRGW received administration approval last Thursday after nearly two semesters of waiting.

Assistant to the President, Max Farrington announced Thursday that the revised station constitution had received the approval of the administration. "I am very happy that it has finally been accomplished.

We are looking for them to have a successful operation," Mr. Farrington said. He added that any final decision regarding station policy will be determined by the public relations department of the University.

The station was organized during the latter part of September, largely through the efforts of its station manager, Stu Gelber. By early October, the group had been approved by the Student Life committee and the Student Council, needing only administration sanction to begin broadcasting.

Mr. Gelber then took his organization's proposal to Mr. Farrington. Mr. Farrington's initial reaction was one of disbelief when he was informed that the station could get on the air without costing the University one cent. However, after Dr. Leggett of the Speech department and Mr. Abrams of the School of Engineering assured him that the possibility of starting a radio station free of charge to the University was not mere wishful thinking, he agreed to speak to Dr. Marvin concerning the matter.

Several weeks later, Dr. Marvin put thumbs down on the proposal and refused even to discuss the matter with the station's staff. The station's instigators gritted their teeth and kept their staff of some one hundred students planning and training for broadcasting, in the hope that the President would change his attitude.

In February, Dr. Marvin retired as President of the University and was succeeded by Dean of the Faculty Colclough. Stu Gelber shortly thereafter discussed the proposed station with acting President Colclough, who promised him he would give the organization's constitution his immediate attention.

The Acting President returned the constitution to the group approximately six weeks later, requesting that a few changes be made. These changes were immediately adopted and the ratified constitution was again submitted for approval.

Seven weeks later, the constitution was again returned for still further revision. These changes were immediately affected, and the constitution was once more submitted back to the Acting President's office.

Last Wednesday, the administration sent back the constitution for additional corrections. These corrections were made and the document was returned to the Acting President's office on the same day. Last Thursday, Mr. Farrington received a memo from President Colclough announcing the station's approval.

A number of difficulties have arisen as a result of the delay in administration approval. When the station was conceived, a star-studded inaugural broadcast was

Colonials Elect Stuart As Head; Babcock Named By Inde-ans

• ROGER STUART WAS the unanimous choice for the chairmanship of the Colonial Campus Party for the coming year.

Reorganizing after a victorious campaign for Student Council elections the party settled on Mr. Stuart as the uncontested heir to the top post.

On taking the gavel from Stanley Heckman, outgoing chairman, Mr. Stuart emphasized that the continued search for new members and effective acceptance of new issues will be the only thing that will enable the party to continue its rise to success.

The secondary party post went to Bart Crivella, who ran against fraternity brother Al May. Mr. Crivella served as an outstanding spokesman for the party during elections and was the campaign manager for two of the parties successful office seekers.

Rhoda Ezrin, an unsuccessful party candidate for freshman director in the recent elections, was the unanimous choice for Secretary. In being elected to the post, Miss Ezrin was the only officer on the executive committee to be carried over for a second term.

Bob Lineberry was another unanimous choice as he copped the Treasurer's post.

Stan Heckman, one of the founders of the party and the newly elected Comptroller of the Student Council, won the office of Member-at-large. In winning his post, he was competing against Al Capp, Al May, and Charles Landon.

The newly elected executive board will meet during the summer to consider applicants for

• STOVER "SMOKEY" BABCOCK was re-elected, last Friday, to fill the chairmanship of the Inde-ans political party for the coming year.

Mr. Babcock, in his quest for the top post defeated the other hopefuls, Bill Ausman and Jean Marie Rooks. James Hume, the party's unsuccessful presidential candidate in the recent Student Council race, declined to run for the post.

The biggest battle of the afternoon developed in the vice-chairmanship race when six ballots were required before Bill Davis finally received the bid. Jean Marie Rooks was defeated on the last ballot. Bob Cayer dropped out on the fourth and Tito Tanzi and Pat Moore fell by the wayside on the second.

Teyyr Conroy and Miss Rooks were elected unopposed to the recording and corresponding secretarial positions respectively.

Pat Moore received the Treasurer's job by acclamation, after Bob Cayer and James Humes both declined the nomination.

In the running for member-at-large were unsuccessful Advocate candidate in the recent council election, Joel Bieser and Bob Cayer. Mr. Cayer received the call for that position.

Party founder, Dave Fentress outstanding committee chairmanships.

A motion was also passed to require the party chairman to appoint a majority party leader in the Student Council, as well as a party whip. Mr. Stuart has not made these appointments yet.

retained his publicity committee chairmanship and appointed assistants in two fields: written; Jean Marie Rooks, and Stover Babcock, display.

Bill Ausman was elected to head up the entertainment and fund-raising committee.

Mr. Humes accepted the position of membership chairman.

S.C. Swears In New Members At Meeting

by Dick Gillespie

• THE SEVENTEEN NEW members of the Student Council were sworn in Wednesday night and immediately considered various planks of the Colonial Campus Political Party platform.

The new Council, dominated by 11 members of the CC's, enacted legislation setting up survey committees to study the possible establishment of a check-cashing service and a student directory. These two proposals were two of the main planks of the CC platform during the recent Student Council elections.

A spirited battle developed just after the opening gavel when President Mead ruled that the Good and Welfare segment of the meeting would be closed to the public. Stan Heckman, Council Comptroller, immediately joined the battle and moved that Good and Welfare be open. The Council passed Mr. Heckman's motion.

Good and Welfare takes place following the regular business sessions. It is during this time that members informally criticize each other's action and comment on the usefulness and validity of the previous business session. Until earlier this year, this part of the meeting was closed when a motion by Mr. Heckman outlawing such action was passed by the previous Council. Mr. Heckman, commenting on the closing of Good and Welfare, told the Council that if this segment of the meeting is closed, they could be accused of using this secret session to consider embarrassing issues. This has never been done, he said, but that is the reason why it was opened to the public earlier in the year.

Mr. Mead's mastery of parliamentary procedure left many of the new members in a daze and clearly indicated that this past Council Advocate should be one of the strongest presidents in recent years. One veteran observer termed this meeting "the most smoothly run first meeting" that he had seen in the past three years.

Mr. Mead, very pleased with the business conducted in the first meeting, said he hoped to have legislation dealing with all the CC platform proposals ready for operation or administration approval by the end of the summer.

Mr. Mead's optimism is backed by the fact that all of the Colonial Campus Party's 11 Council members will be in town for the summer meetings. A majority of Council members, in fact, will be present and the absentees will have appointed proxies. The Council, therefore, should feature a full house for the upcoming summer session.

Patrol Boys Descend On Student Union

• SIX HUNDRED NORFOLK youngsters, representing that city's contingent to the annual School Patrol Convention, descended upon the Student Union late Saturday afternoon.

Along with the youngsters were police, chaperones, and bus drivers, which brought the total to 680. All were treated to a supper consisting of chicken, peas, potatoes and soda, courtesy of Cleaves Food Service, and the Student Union.

Saturday night these children all returned home, after a day filled with sightseeing, marching and souvenir hunting.

For most of these children it was their first trip to the Nation's Capital, and they all seemed very impressed with both the city of Washington, and G. W.'s Student Union.

Summer Carnival Date Set For 7th

• THE 7TH ANNUAL Summer Carnival will be held on Wednesday July 23, at 7:30 p.m. on Lisner Terrace.

The Student Council, in cooperation with the Dance Production Group, will present this year's Summer Carnival in a "Hawaiian Holiday" atmosphere.

The midway, to be set up on Lisner Terrace, will contain booths sponsored by the different schools, colleges, and various organizations on the campus. Each of these booths will have a different concession following the Hawaiian theme.

Main Show

During the evening a "main show" will be presented by the Dance Production Group on the midway. Also, each division of the University will have its own act to present, again following the Hawaiian theme.

After the show the midway will open again. Then, a dance will be held after the midway is closed.

Everyone in the University is invited to attend the Summer Carnival. This includes not only the students attending the summer session, but any students who attend the University, their families and friends.

Student Council Activities Director, Gayle Cook, is coordinator and director of the Summer Carnival, and Miss Elizabeth Burtner, Director of the Dance Production Group, is supervisor.

In case of rain, the Carnival will be held on the following night.

planned for either November or December. Mr. Gelber does not feel that he can ask these people to appear a second time, after the station had to quickly cancel their appearances last semester. The delay also caused many seniors who could have contributed much to the station to drop out.

The various departments will work out operational details this summer, so that the station will be prepared to go into full scale operation in the fall. The business department will set up its offices and books that will be needed next semester, and the program department will be busy scheduling programs for the fall. The engineering department hopes to have its transmitter built in about four weeks. A chain of command and a circuit of communication will be devised, so that the station will be able to communicate quickly and efficiently with every organization on campus and within its own structure.

Station manager Gelber emphasized that the staff could be as varied and large as student support warrants. He added that a campus station could use a large news section, sports center, public relations department, advertising department, writing staff, business department and engineering staff. In addition, the station will need talent to direct shows, conduct interviews, work disc-jockey programs and create cultural programs.

The main purpose of the station is to give its participants commercial broadcast experience. It will also serve as a link of communication between the administration, faculty and student body. The station hopes to take in enough money through advertising to be able to assist other student activities that are not in a position to earn money.

If the station receives sufficient student support this summer, it should be able to start broadcasting on a full-time basis several days before the start of fall registration. Mr. Gelber stated that the station hopes to be able to assist new students in getting oriented during the pre-registration and registration periods.

IFC Considers New Housing Proposal

• THE INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL is considering the adoption of a proposal which may prevent a re-currence of the feud over rushmen living in fraternity houses before fall rush.

The proposal, which was forwarded by Charlie Mays of Phi Sigma Kappa, calls for the establishment of an IFC housing committee. The purpose of the committee would be to determine the amount of available space in each fraternity house. This information would then be given to the University housing office, which would, in turn, fill the houses.

Resolves Conflict

Mr. Mays and other supporters of the measure believe that this would resolve the conflict caused by men who wish to break their contract with Adams Hall after they pledge a fraternity. In addition, they are convinced that this system will aid small fraternities in that their houses will be kept filled at all times. Proponents of the bill also point out the fact that there are expected to be only a hundred vacancies in Adams hall in the fall, and that the University has already sent letters of admission to over two hundred out of town men.

Bill Blocher, of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, speaking on behalf of those IFC delegates opposed to the measure, said that the proposal couldn't possibly benefit anyone other than the larger fraternities. He added that he doesn't consider the financial condition of most of the fraternities to be so unstable that the housing office be required to provide renters for them. Mr. Blocher went on to say that the proposed measure leaves the door open for so-called "dirty rush," since a man living in a fraternity before rush will 9 times out of 10 pledge that fraternity.

Dr. Don C. Faith, Dean of Men, stated that he had no specific objections to the plan, providing that it would be fairly administered.

Electronics Holds Key To Space Program

by Don Elliott

• "ELECTRONICS GOES today where man cannot go."

This statement was made by Hal Gettings, associate editor of Missiles and Rockets magazine, speaking before AFROTC students Wednesday.

Mr. Gettings' topic was "The U. S. Space Program" and he emphasized the important part played by electronics in this program.

He explained the uses of communication satellites and stated that the development of these by either the U. S. or Russia could have far-reaching consequences. With a series of satellites circling the globe, messages could be beamed to any point and the broadcast of propaganda would be much simpler than now. Eventually, television can also be transmitted by this method.

The possibility of operating observatories in satellites is being studied by a committee of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, according to Mr. Gettings. Telescopes and similar instruments operating above the earth's cloud layer would give us a more accurate picture of stars, planets, solar radiation and weather data than we can obtain at the present, he explained.

He also mentioned the aid which these satellites would give sailors, who, with suitable tables and observations, could use them for navigation.

Other projects which he touched upon were SNAP (small nuclear auxiliary powerplant), ion propulsion, MASER (a type of tubeless oscillator) and the control of the ionosphere by hydrogen explosions.

These examples of the work being done in the field of astronautics (space electronics) were cited by Gettings to show the future of this fast-growing field. He encouraged his audience to examine the opportunities offered by this field.

In the discussion period which followed his talk, Gettings made a statement which stresses the speed at which astronautics is changing. "Anything you say today," he said, "may be proven wrong tomorrow."

Cheerleaders Plan To Get More Support

• DEE McDONALD, cheerleader captain, states that one of the main goals of the cheerleaders next year will be to gain full support of incoming freshmen.

The Booster Board will work in cooperation with the cheerleaders in an attempt to arouse interest and enthusiasm on the part of students. The faculty also will be encouraged to attend games and display more concern for the University's athletic program.

The cheerleaders have been making plans for the coming season and have decided that posters, cheer cards, half-time activities and ribbons to be issued before each game will be some of the methods used to increase student participation.

"She's a Service Representative for the telephone company—they're all grand gals to know."

"Most of them are just out of college, and they really love their jobs. They're responsible for customer relations—help you arrange for telephone service, answer your questions—to hear them talk, they never have a dull day."

"They meet a lot of interesting people, and they're well paid. Good starting salary with frequent raises. Opportunities for promotion, too. Convenient hours, modern offices—all around it's a good job for any smart girl."

Indeed it is! Perhaps you qualify. When your college days are over, call or write our College Employment Counselor, 725 13th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. She'll gladly discuss it with you.

A Farewell

• THE BOARD OF Editors and the members of the HATCHET staff wish to thank the Administration, faculty and student body for the tremendous support it has received during the past year.

In our capacity as Editors we have continued to express and lead opinion, which is our duty as a newspaper. We have criticized, and we have praised. We have congratulated and tried to get support for various University functions.

We, in turn, have received criticism on the stands we have taken on a number of questions. And, conversely, we have received praise for other stands we have taken.

We are glad that support has been received for a number of activities and functions we have advocated—the radio station, intramural insurance, Who's Who and the political parties.

We feel that this year has been outstanding in a number of ways, but mainly in the formation of the two political parties, and the establishment of a University magazine and radio station.

As our term of office comes to a close with this issue of the HATCHET, we would like to extend our best wishes to the new members of the Student Council and to the new editors of the Cherry Tree and HATCHET.

Achievements . . .

• A NUMBER OF questions that have been left hanging for the majority of the year were finally resolved during the past week.

Much to our relief, the radio station WRGW has finally received Administration approval. After approximately two semesters of hard work, and numerous revisions of their constitution to meet with Administration acceptance, the members of the station were informed of the approval by Assistant to the President Max Farrington last Thursday. The editors have long been in favor of the radio station. We are sure that it will prove to be one of the strongest student activity groups on this campus. We wish to extend our congratulations and best wishes to that well deserving organization.

The Student Life Committee has at last passed a motion approving the retention of Who's Who on this campus. This honorary has been the subject of much discussion and debate during the past few months as it is every year after the announcement of new Who's Who members. We are glad that the Committee reached the decision that it has. It is our opinion that Who's Who is one of the top honoraries to ever be established on this campus. As we have said in the past, the purpose of this honorary is to recognize outstanding leaders on University campuses and there should be no reason for its existence to be contested as much as it has. It seems that a few members of our faculty have been the main contenders in favor of its abolishment. We hope that the question of the existence of Who's Who has been resolved for the last time and that next year's Student Life Committee will not have to decide on the question again.

The Interfraternity Council is presently considering the adoption of a proposal which may solve the feud over rushmen living in fraternity houses. Last semester, a conflict arose because a number of men wished to break their contracts with Adams Hall for men after they had pledged a fraternity. We could not in the past, and cannot see now, any reason why rushmen should not be allowed to reside in the fraternity house of their choice. The new proposal calls for the establishment of an IFC housing committee which would determine the amount of available space in each fraternity house. The information would be given to the University housing office which would fill the houses. This system would also aid the smaller fraternities in keeping their houses filled.

We were happy to be informed that the majority of the newly elected Students Council members will be in attendance at the summer meetings. We strongly disapprove of the idea of proxies, who have not been elected by the student body, making decisions on Council business. We hope that those members who will not be here this summer will consider carefully the capabilities of persons they choose to proxy for them.

As you all know, the formation of the two political parties did a great deal to make this year's Council elections as successful as they were. Greater interest was stirred up because of their existence as can be seen in the vast increase in the percentage of students who cast ballots. We are glad that the parties have been successful in their initial task and we hope that their success will continue.

Another great boon to our campus has been the establishment of a University magazine. Members of the student body have long been trying to establish such a magazine, and from the record of last week's sales, we are sure that it will be a great success.

Mrs. Styron Illustrates For 'Potomac'

by Youtha Hardman

• "ART IS MY old love," summarizes the attitude of Mrs. Elizabeth Styron toward her life time interest.

A pencil sketch done by Mrs. Styron appeared in POTOMAC, the University literary magazine. This sketch was made many years ago during a summer session at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts in Chester, Pennsylvania. The subject of the sketch is a person who sat in front of Mrs. Styron in class.

Her interest in art began when she was a little girl. During those early years she won a book in a Woman's Home Companion Contest for a charcoal drawing. This was the first prize she had ever won.

Highest Distinction

Later, after she had attended Pratt Institute for a year, she found that "It wouldn't be a bread and butter course for me, so I went into library work." In 1930 Mrs. Styron received an AB degree in Library Science with highest distinction from George Washington and entered library work.

She started at the Library of Congress, then with the Veterans Administration lending books to patients.

"I was always making sketches of my family and things I saw about me," she said. "Then too I was always making posters for various affairs."

Then when her library career was over, her art became a full time interest. She studied under Butis Baker and Vincent V. Moore at Corcoran School of Art. Presently she is taking a course at Corcoran through the University.

Her work has included sketching, water color, oil, etching, landscapes and pen and ink. She is not limited by patronage of any school of art or special interest in any particular artist. Now, life drawing is receiving her concentrated interest. She is taking the course under Edmund Archer at Corcoran.

Miniatures

However, landscaping has been her special interest. Along this line she has done many miniatures, 1½ by 1½ inches. These miniatures have been her best sellers. Her taste for small things prompted her to begin working with miniatures. In 1951 it occurred to her to enter some miniatures in the Miniature Society's exhibit. For this first exhibit, she chose five miniatures she had done in Maine. Since then she has entered this show annually and it has become her "chief love." In this year's show she is exhibiting a miniature portrait "Head of a Young Girl."

Some of the miniatures she has done are described below.

"Guardian Trees" was inspired by two trees Mrs. Styron passed each time she went to Arlington. The bigger tree overshadowed the smaller one as if to protect it.

While in Maine, she went out just to sketch and did several 3 by 4 inch miniatures such as "Gray Days." However, many of her miniatures were inspired by scenes in Georgetown around Wisconsin Avenue. One of these is "Dogwood Tree" which was inspired by a tree that stood alone after the house it stood in front of was torn down.

Done From Memory

Most of the work she has done here in Washington were of objects she saw repeatedly and were done from memory.

In 1956, Mrs. Styron received an award in the Monochrome Class during the Neighborhood Annual Art Show The Plains, Virginia. This year she has entered an 11 by 13 oil painting and an etching in The Plains Show.

"I haven't exhibited widely," she comments but her enthusiasm about not only her own work, but also, art in general makes it evident that she is truly a lover of art.

Auntie Hester Heale Reveals Her Identity

by John Prokop

• "I'M CERTAIN THIS comes as a great surprise to everyone," exclaimed Hal Bergem, unveiling himself as the 1958-59 version of our beloved maiden aunt, Hester Heale.

A frayed birth certificate tacked to his cave wall showed that Hal was born in Kelso, Washington, but moved to Seattle at the tender age of five.

A nepotist hunter informed me that Hal came to D. C. to work for Senator Warren G. Magnuson, who urged Hal to attend George Washington University. So here he is, already.

During his freshman year, two burly fraternity men baited him with gaily colored tin cans and an amber fluid, and Hal became a member of popular Sigma Chi fraternity.

Like most of us, he bungled his way through school work, killed his chances to be Phi Beta Kappa very early, and enjoyed the many cultural advantages of Washington, particularly the parties.

Partly because of his training and his ability to plod through the social mire, he was elevated to the "Foggy Bottom" post on the HATCHET last September.

Hal seems to have a monopoly on hidden identities at the University. Last football season, he was the "George" half of the George and Martha team.

Hal was elected president of the Order of Scarlet, sophomore and junior men's honorary, and Columbian College Representative to the Student Council in the recent spring elections.

Hal deserves the acclamation of the student body, because in all his days as the "Foggy" writer, he never once received an orange slip from the English department.

Hail Caesar! Hail Bergem! Hail to the end of a great era! Hal Bergem, R. I. P.

Letter To The Editors

• TO THE EDITORS:

The administration has finally given its approval to the radio workshop, WRGW, and we thank them heartily. I have been affiliated with this group since its inception, back in September of 1958, and have watched it grow from about 15 students to a roster of about 80. From the beginning those of us really interested in seeing a radio station established at G. W. knew it would be a hard fight, and now that we have received approval, our dreams can become a reality.

Now that we have it, I certainly feel and hope that you as a student body will support this organization to the hilt. And equal time will be given to both political parties.

Mrs. Bellows Says Good-bye As Scholarship Secretary

Ever have any trouble with scholarships you bright students? Well, if you have, you've undoubtedly run into the advice . . . Go see Mrs. Bellows!

That's been the phraseology ascribed to this woman and it is the most characteristic of her value as a counselor and friend at the University.

Ever since 1947, Mrs. Bellows has been connected with the scholarship program at the University, but alas, the time has come to bid this vivacious and pleasant woman farewell.

Her reason for leaving. Well it certainly isn't that she is fed up. The truth of the matter is that she wishes she could stay here all her life. But her husband Edward has been transferred to New York with the Olin Mathlison Chemical corporation.

As secretary for the Committee on Scholarship with Dean Burnice Jarman as Chairman and as secretary of the central scholarship office established in 1957, Mrs. Bellows has come into close contact with many scholarship students.

In the words of one of these students summed up the feelings practically everyone has had with regard to her. "Mrs. Bellows has been more than just a friend and advisor. In truth, she has personified the spirit of the University itself. Her loyalty and cooperation have made her name almost an institution within itself."

Thus we will bid a good-bye to a good friend on the University staff.

HAPPY MOTHERS' DAY, KITTY!
 (Related, but with the same sweet thoughts as though it were last Sunday.)

"Big Daddy" went out of office in fine style last Wednesday night, educating the old and new Student Councils at a Student Council Workshop at the Pi Kappa Alpha house. Ex-Pexxy Rutch treated all to a buffet sandwich counter and all sorts of foreign brew. Among the many "yet to be enlightened" were new Pexxy Tim Mead, Dick Willis, Kitty Hyland, Betsy Evans, Carl Scrivner, Ed Crump, Linda Lancaster, Hal Bergem, Dave Aaronson, Bill Stuart, Steve Dietz, Charlie Landon, Cookie Fischgrund, Stan Heckman, Ben Finkel, Tom McGrath and Ray Linck. Pete Meachanic was on tap to sing several incoherent verses of some song he learned at day camp. Two visitors of the friendly sort from the third precinct dropped by and wondered why "youse student leaders ain't studying like good little college guys and dames."

Mary Lou McCracken rates as Girl-of-the-Week, as she was crowned Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha Saturday night. Her lovely court included Annette Bailey, Shelly Hymowitz, Rosina Orr, and Judy Wilson. On hand to honor Dream Girl Mary Lou at the Potomac Boat club when they were not sipping mint juleps on the veranda, were Dave Fouquet and ZTA Dottie "Venus" Nelson, Jerry Remos and Joyce Dimatina, Steve Dietz and AEPHI Cookie Fischgrund, Phil Dubina and DG Beth Oliver, Hank Richmond and Chio Kate Arness, Steve Judge and ZTA Jackie Jones, Bill Farley and Nancy Wright, Marty Hertz and AEPHI Elaine Cohen, Warren Lytle and Kappa Becky Hanzl, Lee Jameson and PiPhi Bonnie Borden and Bob Corens and Chio Marty Hurd.

Most all of GW could be seen getting into the Ocean City spirit at the SAE pre-Ocean City party Saturday night. Seen there at one time or another were Henry Frain and DG Betty Robinson, the old educator Jerry Power and Kappa Margie Weiss, Frank Campana and Chio Kathy Maier, Spanish-speaking Eddie Dyson and Julie Anderson, and Dave French and DG Cassie Anderson. The party later moved upstairs to Jack Williams lair of modern jazz where his date, "Gentle Annie" Gruger (Kappa) entertained Tom McHan and DG Jan Martinez, Jerry Sluger and Janet Rees, Dan Taylor (who was sitting on the air-conditioner), Al Innamorato and KKG Bonnie Banker, Gus Muir and PiPhi Marty Mueller, Boss Crumper and Theta Linda Lancaster and many others. The party got off to a slow start, but as the evening progressed, the walls came tumbling down.

It was No. 50 for the SigEps last Saturday night, as the SPES celebrated with their Heart Ball at the DuPont Plaza. Spotted on the dance floor were Larry Doyle and "Queen of Hearts" Nancy Neilsen, Chester Gray and Thelma Jepperson, Gary Comstock and SK Victoria Kuchinsky, Hans Zassenhaus and KD Karen Dreier, Keith Hipp and KD Kaleen Peck, Dick Runge and SK Sondra Ford, and Ken McMahon and Marty Angle.

The PhiSigs heralded the coming exams with their annual Carnation Ball last Friday evening. The Lambda Chapter brothers and their dates included prexy Charlie King and Kappa Leo Jones, Roy Robbins and PiPhi Hope Barton, Charlie Mays and pinmate ADPI Anne Haug, Bill Dotson and Chio

Rose Cordray, Mike Taylor and Alice Sobotka (both stone sober), Gary Levering and Theta Paula Tyler, Don Pavony and PiPhi Felita La Salle, Ed Bruckner and AEPHI Susie Hetson, Chuck Forbes and Kappa Connie Smith, and Lou van Blois and PhiSig Moonlight Girl, Chio Glinger Thomas.

The weekend whirl for the Deltas included the annual Delt picnic on Saturday at Theta Bobbie Lohnes'. Digesting the hamburgers served by Bobbie's pinmate, Bill Smythe (who was sporting a bridesmaid hat) were Jim Jennings and Anne Massey, Bill Lady and Theta Sand Clements, Jim Hill and Kappa Terry Bishop, Bernie Degan and DG Margo Gross, Bill Howlin and DG Helene Harper, Larry Boehly and Libby Griffith, Pexxy Bill Talento and KKG Joyce Ormsby, Bill Stanley and Delt Queen DG Liz McGarry, and Jack Boiler and Kappa Edie Petersilia. One of the more high-lighting moments of the affair was provided by Ham Beggs when he went "mousehunting" with his date, DG Paula Fortucci. It's no apocryphal (yipes, boy, this isn't the GW literary magazine you're contributing to, it's only "Foggy Bottom") statement when I say that the picnic was really hopping as the dark of night "drew nigh." Some of the brothers haven't come home YET.

Sigma Nus and dates in full force at their annual banquet were Steve Kemp and Theta Edie Fenton, Jack Lynn and Theta Bunny Johannassen, Tom McGrath and Theta Ann Conneally, Larry Roser and Carolyn Gaines, Dick Willis and Theta Gay Butler, Jay Stoutenburgh and Bobbi Rana, Ken Steele and PiPhi Nina Di Pierre, Ken Callaway and Barbara Kessec, Chuck Stirling and Vera Wunsch, and Harry and Lou Kelsey.

SAE Billy Frank highlighted the DG spring party Friday night by his selection of Anchor Man. Seen cavorting in the unfilled swimming pool, playing volleyball and dancing to the rhythms of the Sunshine Market Four were Mary Ann and Bill Medina, Lani Derickson and SAE Willey Clark, Inez Tonelli and Anchor Man Frank, Margo Herr and SAE Bob Price, Nancy Koontz and PIKA Marion Hoar, Judy Crumlish and SAE Tony Dold, Lyna Bream and SAE Rich Wells, and Penny Reid and Delt Ken Larish.

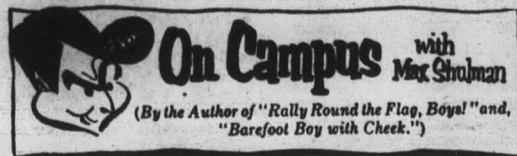

Two teams vied for TGIFs last Friday. The ladies of Sigma Kappa held the most unique TG of the year—a shoe shine party. Frat men and independents spilled from the windows and doors, and eventually emerged with highly polished shoes—and socks!

Down in the "Drinking Belt" of G Street, however, more noise was emanating from the birthplace of Aime Sempie MacPherson—the Sigma Chi House. Derby Days movies were being premiered under the guise of Cecil B. DeWitt-Williams, who almost lost his beard when it got tangled in the movie projector. There were some very revealing shots—for instance, the one of Bob Bishop during the Nine O'clock Rush. The Academy Award for Special Effects, however, goes to Kitty Hyland.

And now, dear nieces, nephews, and what-have-we-here, it is time for your dear old maiden aunt to bid you, "Au revoir." But I could not leave you without saying a special word of thanks to all my faithful contributors.

Have a fabulous summer! Farewell!

TILL WE MEET AGAIN

This is the last column of my fifth year of writing for Philip Morris and Marlboro. I have made it a custom in the last column of each year not to be funny. I know I have also realized this aim in many other columns during the year, but that was not for lack of trying. Today I am not trying. I am not trying for two reasons: First, because you are getting ready for final exams and in your present state of shock, nothing in the world could possibly make you laugh. And second, this final column of the year is for many of us a leave-taking, and good-byes always make me too misty to be funny.

For me the year ends neither with a bang nor a whimper, but with a glow—a warm, pleasant, mellow glow—the kind of glow you will find, for example, at the end of a Philip Morris or Marlboro.

It has been in every way a gratifying experience, my five years with the makers of Philip Morris and Marlboro, and I would like to take this opportunity to extend my heartfelt appreciation to these good tobaccoists, to assure them that the memory of their kindness will remain ever green in my heart, and to remind them that they still owe me for the last three columns.

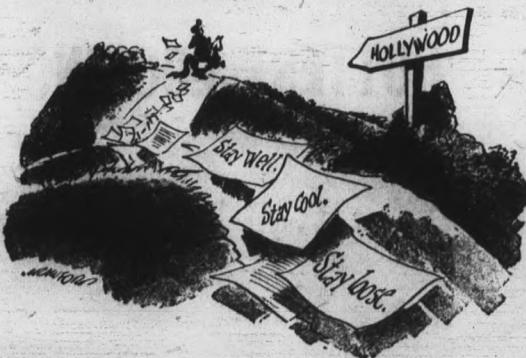

And in these waning days of the school year, let me address myself seriously to you, my readers. Have I trod on any toes this year? Ruffled any feelings? Jostled any sensibilities? If so, I am sorry.

Have I occasioned any laughs? Chuckles? Sniggers? Mona Lisa smiles? If so, I'm glad.

Have I persuaded any of you to try Philip Morris and Marlboro? To taste that fine flavor? To smoke that excellent tobacco? If so, you are glad.

And now the long, lazy summer lies ahead. But for me summer is never lazy. It is, in fact, the busiest time of year. Two summers ago, for instance, I was out ringing doorbells every single day, morning, noon, and night. There was a contest, you see, and the kid in my neighborhood who sold the most bluing won a pony. I am proud to report that I was the lucky winner.

Last summer I was also out ringing doorbells every single day, morning, noon, and night. I was trying to sell the pony.

This summer I am not going to be out ringing doorbells. I am going to saddle the pony and ride to Hollywood, California. What am I going to do in Hollywood, California? I am going to write a series of half-hour television comedies called THE MANY LOVES OF DOBIE GILLIS, and starting in October, 1959, your friends and mine, the makers of Philip Morris and Marlboro, are going to bring you this program over the Columbia Broadcasting System every Tuesday night at 8:30. Why don't you speak to your housemother and ask her if she'll let you stay up to see it?

And now good-bye. For me it's been kicks all the way, and I hope for you it hasn't been altogether unbearable. Have a good summer. Stay well. Stay cool. Stay loose.

© 1959, Max Schulman

For us, the makers of Philip Morris and Marlboro, it's been kicks too, and we would like to echo kindly old Max's parting words: Stay well. Stay cool. Stay loose.

Old Men Map Out Next Year's Plans

• APPROXIMATELY one hundred members of Old Men were on hand for two meetings last week to make plans for Old Men activities for next year.

After a preliminary discussion of Old Men duties, a few changes were suggested which were designed to make the program even more effective.

A series of forums concerning the various phases of University life was recommended. This, as suggested, would have consisted of six forums held at two-week intervals. After the statement by one member that in the twelve weeks which would be required to accomplish this, a student would have acquired the information by himself, the membership voted down the proposal.

Another addition, which was almost unanimously accepted, was that of a workshop to brief Old Men on the knowledge which would be demanded of them by their duties.

There are two meetings of Old Men and their sons before registration. It is felt that the first of these meetings should be held on Friday immediately following the Curriculum Assembly instead of the next Monday. It is on this date that all registration problems will be taken care of so that the incoming students need not worry about this any longer.

Members of Old Men also feel that little benefit is obtained from the second meeting which in the past has been the Celebrity Smoker. The Board is studying possible changes to be made in the program of this meeting to realize a greater benefit from it.

Some of the duties of Old Men were explained to the new members. During the summer, an Old Man corresponds with his son and offers his assistance in orienting his son in college. He meets his son a week before registration and helps him with his scheduling problems. Next fall, actual registration forms will be on hand so that schedules may be made out before registration day and thus avoid much confusion.

Old Men were encouraged to notify the Old Men board of any change of address during the summer to facilitate the board's work of corresponding with both Old Men and their sons.

Phi S.S. Wins Phonograph

• PHI SIGMA SIGMA sorority won the new Admiral stereophonic record player in the spring Marlboro contest.

The sisters of Phi Sigma Sigma accumulated a total of 16,154 empty Marlboro boxes. Even more unusual than this fantastic collection of red and white receptacles is the fact that only one of the twenty girls in the sorority smokes Marlboro cigarettes.

Letty Katz, president of the group, said that the members had been gathering boxes for over two years. Many of the girls work in stores where the cigarettes are sold and urged those who purchased Marlboro's to return the empty containers.

World-Wide Search

Linda Friedman received a huge trunk from her home last fall and had it taken up to her room in Strong Hall. She lifted the lid expecting to see her long-awaited for fall clothes, but was instead greeted by the sight of over two thousand empty cartons which had been crammed into the trunk.

Letty Katz admitted that she had several times behaved in a manner not befitting her lofty station, while searching for the illusive containers. She spoke of having rummaged through trash containers on Fifth Avenue in New York City.

Story Elected Alumni Prexy

• JAMES C. VAN STORY, Jr., of 3427 Porter Street, n.w., has been elected President of the General Alumni Association.

Mr. Van Story, who is in the estate and financial planning business in Washington, has been active in Alumni activities as Vice President representing the Junior and Columbian Colleges of the University, as an Alumni Fund Worker, and as President and Trustee of the athletic booster organization of the University Colonials, Inc.

He is a former Director and Secretary of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, a former Director of the D. C. Life Underwriters, past President of the Kappa Alpha Washington Alumni, and presently Chapter Advisor of the G. W. U. Kappa Alpha chapter. He received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1948 and the degree of Master of Arts in 1949 from the University.

Also elected as officers of the Association for 1959-1960 were nine vice presidents: Washington I. Who's Who Survives 2nd Test This Year

by Roger Stuart II

• A PROPOSAL FOR the abolishment of Who's Who on this campus was rejected last Friday by the Student Life Committee.

The action by the committee marked the second time this year that such a proposal has been rejected by that body, the first appeal for student claims before they go to the administration of the University.

Betsy Evans, in proposing the motion at a Thursday meeting listed four arguments favoring the University's withdrawal from the organization.

First, she said, "some of the student body think that it is a joke, and secondly there is so much dissension over the method of selection, that it seems hardly worthwhile."

For the third reason, she offered the belief that the organization offers little to the University's prestige. And finally she noted, "Who's Who is not really an honorary. Instead, it is purely a commercial gimmick; there are no goals, and no honor is connected with it."

Chairman Coberly then called for the question to be voted on. Five students voted or at least seemed to. The trouble was, however, that two of the students only raised their hands trying to get the chair's recognition to make a motion to call the question. The chair, however, was calling the vote, so these two people were counted in a vote of five favoring the motion. The chairman asked for no negative votes and the bill was passed unanimously, the chair said. Then the meeting was adjourned.

The following day, Friday, however, the vote was contested because of the confusion incurred on Thursday, and a vote of four affirmatives was received, but was overshadowed by a count of five negatives votes.

Dean of Men, Dr. Don C. Faith expressed his abhorrence of any form of contention, and believed that because Who's Who is an outstanding source of such a thing, that he would have to concur with Miss Evans' motion.

Marty Reichgut, another man without a vote on the committee this year, but slated for membership next year as ODK representative, voiced his disapproval of the motion on the grounds that the organization at this University has poor methods of selection.

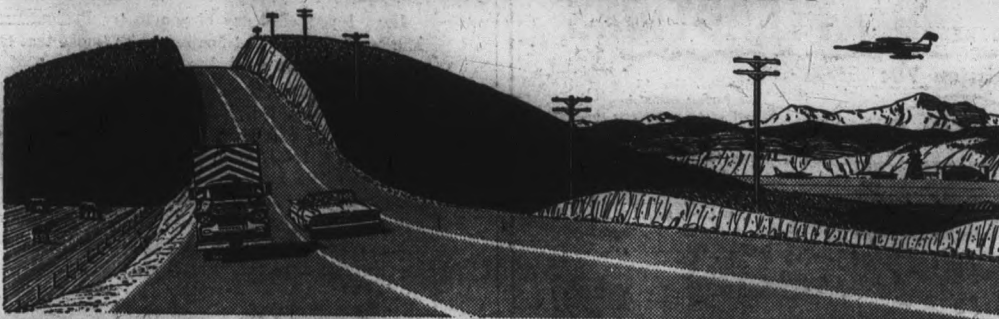

Because the student is asked to petition for Who's Who recognition himself, he pointed out, he naturally considers himself qualified to receive recognition. When he doesn't get passed by Student Life then there is little wonder that he is disappointed. That, therefore, is the thing you should be worried about, he contended, not doing away with the organization itself.

Tom Varley, a voting member of the committee offered more opposition to the motion. First, he questioned the point that such an organization, that recognizes students on a campus and one that is generally accepted by all students, need add prestige to the University or detract from it.

Secondly, he expressed faith in the organization as a means of offering incentive to incoming students at the University to participate in campus activities.

Chairman of the committee, professor J. H. Coberly added more support to the Evans motion. He said first that he could not see the honor value connected with the organization. How can there be honor, he asked, if selection depends upon what an individual university decides upon as its own method. Who's Who itself has no standards.

Independents Win Mural Softball Title

by Aaron Knott

THE HAWKERS TOOK the intramural softball crown by defeating the Med. School and Delta Theta Phi in the playoffs at the ellipse last Sunday. The Med. School copped the second position, while DTPhi came in third.

This was one of the most unusual playoffs ever held in softball, as none of the final-ists was a fraternity team.

The Hawkers is an independent team, while the Med.

School team is drawn from the medical students. Delta Theta Phi is a law fraternity made up mostly of law students without other fraternal affiliations at G. W.

In both games the Hawkers had to come from behind. In the first game, against DTPhi, the Hawkers trailed the lawyers 4-1 in the last of the fifth. The Independents called and tied the score with two out, and Hawker pitcher, John

Jackson, won his own ball game as he singled in the winning run.

Five Hits
In the five-hit fifth the Hawkers took advantage of two walks to gain their four runs.

The Hawkers trailed the Doctors 3-2 in the first inning of the Doctors Take 1st Place In 'Murals

• THE ANNUAL INTRAMURAL awards dinner was held last night at Welling Hall.

First place in intramurals was awarded to the Medical School for the second year in a row. Second place went to Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity, which also won second place last year. The sportsmanship trophy went to Alpha Epsilon Pi and Al Galiani won the individual participant trophy.

According to Vincent DeAngeli, Director of Intramurals, the purpose of the dinner was not only to award the winning teams and individuals of the various sports, but also to recognize the work of the intramural representatives in organizing and encouraging the teams in intramural competition.

Guests at the dinner included Dean Fox from the School of Education, Dean Kohel from the Junior College, and Professors Myers and Hanken from the Department of Physical Education. Others present were the Sports Editor of the HATCHET, and Bob Lipman and Pat Martin from the Intramural office.

second game, but pulled ahead in the bottom of the third 4-3. The bottom of the fourth, however, really proved the Doctors undoing. The Hawkers pushed across six runs with the aid of three Doctor errors and two hits.

The Doctors tried to come back in the fifth, but could only score two runs and lost 10-5.

League Title

The B league title was taken by an independent team also. Phi Alpha Delta, another law fraternity, defeated Tau Kappa Epsilon for the first B league crown. In past years the B leagues haven't had championship playoffs. TKE gained the finals by defeating Acacia in a league play-off.

Colonials Vie For Conference Honor

by Aaron Knott

• THE COLONIAL BASEBALL team with a 9-3 overall record is hopeful of placing three of its members on the all-Southern Conference team. The story will be told in the five remaining Conference games which will be played this week.

The Colonials will meet William and Mary for a double header today at the ellipse.

On Thursday the Buff will travel to VMI to take on the Keydets while Friday will find the Colonials at Williamsburg to face the Generals of Washington and Lee. G. W. will end its season at VPI on Saturday.

Dennis Hill, the amazing sophomore from Arlington, Virginia, is one of G. W.'s hottest contenders for Conference honors. Lefty Denny, the Bobby Shantz of G street, has pitched two years of undefeated ball for the Buff. This season Hill is 5-0, and his hitting has been as good as his pitching.

On the mound, Hill has worked 46 innings in seven games and has only given up 10 earned runs for an earned-run average of 1.95. He has given up 33 hits and walked 20 while striking out 28. Denny is no slouch at bat, and sports a .303 average for 33 times at the plate.

Don Herman, G. W.'s heavy hitting senior from Harrisburg, Pa., is another Colonial contender for Conference honors. Don is number one on the team with a .423 average, including five triples and three doubles and one homer.

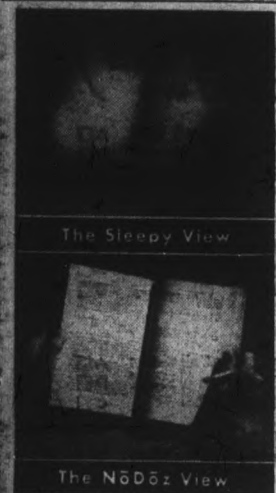

Charlie Sampson, the third all-Conference prospect is right behind Herman in hitting with a .403 average. Charlie leads the team in RBI's with 18, while in his 22 hits he includes two triples, two doubles, and two home runs. The hard hitting third baseman also leads the team in stolen bases, with four to his credit.

Buff Retain Two Hill Wins Sixth Straight; G. W. Downs VPI, Hoyas

by Joe Iseman

• CLINCHING THEIR FOURTH consecutive Southern Conference tennis championship, the Buff netmen resoundingly slashed all opposition in the playoffs at Norfolk last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

In the finals which had deteriorated into a dual meet between G. W. and the Wildcats from Davidson by Saturday, the Colonials won eight of the nine championships, with the number three division doubles being their sole loss.

The tournament which was played at the Norfolk Yacht and Country Club found winners in Jim Tarr, Jack Tarr, Saul Leibowitz, Jim Whitehead, Ken Silverstone and Ken Garrison. The doubles victors were the team of Tarr and Tarr and the Leibowitz-Whitehead duo. Only the doubles team of Garrison and Dick Fischman failed to come through as they lost 7-5, 1-6, 6-2.

For the second year in a row Jim Tarr, who is only a junior, has captured the Southern Conference singles crown. Also the Tarr-Tarr combination retained the doubles championship which it won last season.

Leibowitz, whose sensational 14-0 mark in the regular season net action placed him as the first Colonial ever to have been undefeated through a season, continued his powerhouse play in climaxing his No. 3 Division victory with a 6-1, 6-4 score.

Entering Saturday's play, the Buff and the Wildcats had netted eighteen points apiece by advancing their six singles players and three doubles teams to the final round in each of the respective divisions. The hopeful Citadel tennis squad, which along with the Buff and Davidson teams had gone undefeated in its matches on Thursday, could not come through with a single victory in the semifinal round on Friday.

Prior to the tourney, George Washington boosted its three-year domination of the Southern Conference in regular season play to four years by defeating William and Mary on Monday, May 4.

• THE COLONIAL GOLFERS came from behind to cop the Southern Conference team title for the third straight year last Wednesday at Woodmont Country Club.

The Buff pulled out in front on the final day of play and topped second-place Davidson by a close four-stroke margin. Warren Krick, playing his home course, led the G. W. attack with a 36-hole total of 155. John Dunn (157), Eddie Bowers (158), and Joe Haney (162) rounded out the play to give the Colonials the winning 632 total.

The tournament results were far from evident after the first day of the two-day event. The Colonials trailed the leading Citadel squad by eight strokes. A pair of 76s by Krick and Bowers kept the Buff within striking range. But Dunn's 82 and Haney's 84 assured the squad of only a fifth-place spot in the field of nine teams.

Things were different on Wednesday. This time Dunn and Haney led the way, and the Colonials cut four strokes off their Tuesday total. Dunn, the Kenwood Club champion, turned in a 75, the day's low score, and Haney came back with 78 after an opening-round 84. Krick was a close third with 79, giving him a 36-hole total of 155 to lead the team and tie for third-place individual honors. Bowers came in with 82 to give the Buff a 314 aggregate score on the day and a winning 632 total for the tournament.

The individual title was awarded to Heyward Sullivan of Furman. Sullivan, last year's second-place winner, had 73-77-150. Sam Sloan of Davidson was second with 74-79-153, and Krick and Adolph Popp (West Virginia) tied for third with 155s.

The Woodmont course provided plenty of trouble, and not one of the starting field of 53 matched par of 72 on either day. Many of the participants were playing under summer rules for the first time this season.

• LEFTY DENNY HILL, better known as the Bobby Shantz of G Street, did it again—and again. Last Wednesday he pitched G. W. to a 6-2 victory over a strong VPI team on Saturday, in a non-conference game at Georgetown, he relieved Frank Campana in the ninth pitched scoreless ball for two innings, and won his sixth game without a loss, as the Colonials came from behind with a run in the ninth and six runs in the tenth for a 9-3 victory.

In winning his fifth game Wednesday, Denny pitched a five hitter and struck-out five. The Buff scored six of their runs in the fifth inning with Sam Knisley's two-run homer, his first of the year, sparking the rally. Hill held VPI scoreless after they had scored two runs in the third inning. The victory brought the Colonial's Southern Conference record to 4-2. VPI is 7-4 in the Conference and 10-6 overall.

Campana and Bickerton
Frank Campana and pitcher George Bickerton, playing right field, were real heroes in the Georgetown game. Campana relieved Jack Arthur with one out in the first inning, after Arthur had yielded two runs. Frank pitched 7½ innings and allowed only one run while striking out ten. Meanwhile Bickerton scored the tying run in the top of the ninth on a wild pitch after he had been hit by a pitch, sacrificed to second by Charles Sampson, and singled to third.

George unleashed a perfect throw to catcher Ron DeMelfi, who put the tag on Billy Moore who was trying to score the winning run for Georgetown. But George wasn't finished yet. It was his sacrifice fly in the tenth that scored Ralph Kunze with the tie-breaking run and touched off a six run rally. Hill blanked the Hoyas in the bottom of the tenth to preserve the victory.

Other heroes for the Buff were Don "Gus" Herman, who drove in two runs with two hits, one of which was his sixth triple of the year, and Sam Knisley, who also drove in two runs with two hits, including his second home run in two games. G. W.'s overall record is now 10-3.

Don Herman Leads Batters With .423

by John Prokop

• CONGENIAL DON HERMAN, the right-handed, slugging first-sacker for the Colonial nine is wrapping up his sport career at the University in flying colors.

The 6'5", 210 pound senior from Harrisburg, Pa., is the leading hitter on the club this season with a .423 batting average and 17 runs batted in. His 22 hits in 52 times at bat include 13 singles, 3 doubles, and 5 triples. Don has only one home run, but most of the collegiate diamonds the Colonials play on have no fences.

However, Don's talent is not limited to hitting. An exceptionally good fielder, he is errorless so far this season.

Probable All-Conference

Because of his impressive play this season, Don will probably earn All-Southern Conference honors again. Last year he ended up with a .353 batting average and 17 runs batted in to earn himself a berth on the Southern Conference second team.

Don, a four letterman at Harrisburg's John Harris High School, played right-end for the Colonial football team of which he was also co-captain this past season.

Graduates In February

An accounting major, he graduates in February 1960. Despite the heavy demands made upon him by coursework and sports during his years at the University Don held the job as treasurer of Sigma Chi fraternity for a term and he was fairly active on campus—that is until last August when he and Barbara Fohl, his high-school steady, were married.

Don is a modest guy and he gives a lot of credit to Coach Reinhart and the team for his success. A member of the past three Colonial Southern Conference Championship teams, Don thinks this year's Colonial team is the best in a long time. "The team spirit is great," he says, "and we have a good chance to win the championship again."
